I-601A Provisional Waivers can help you get legal status in the US

Watch the video below to understand how this can benefit you and your loved ones!

Great News!!!

You can get legal status if you entered Illegally and Married a U.S. Citizen or a Green Card Holder or you are the son or daughter of a legal resident or US citizen. In many cases, even if you were ordered deported!!!

You can be granted a waiver for your unlawful status BEFORE you leave for the consular interview and return in about 3 weeks.

We have hundreds of cases approved!

Aliens in removal (deportation) proceedings

Aliens in removal proceedings are allowed to participate in this new provisional unlawful presence waiver process if their removal proceedings are administratively closed and have not been re-calendared at the time of filing the Form I-601A. Aliens whose removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed are covered in the general population of aliens who are eligible to apply for a provisional unlawful presence waiver. Note that if you failed to appear and received an in absentia order of removal, then you will need to make a motion to reopen your case, before you can apply for the 601A waiver.

Aliens who have already been ordered deported or removed.

If you have been ordered Deported or Removed, in many cases, you will also qualify. However, you will need to apply for 2 different waivers, one for being ordered deported (I-212) and the other for having remained in the U.S. illegally. (I-601A)
